

A. F. CHURCH MAPPING PROJECT

BULLETIN: #4-2021

The Fall River & Windsor Junction Adventurers

The Ladies and Gentlemen of the Fall River & Windsor Junction Historical Society have just volunteered to do the matching of the census to the map for their community. Composed of 10 or so active members, they want to work together as a group. Under the Chair of Sandra Carr, they will pool their knowledge and share their memories to match the names that are on the map with the census information we have.

We have asked for “knowers”, “doers”, and “benefactors” to step forward. Mostly, it has been single individuals so far, but here is another way, when people in an area come together as a group with a willingness to work together on their whole community.

This spring, Marcia Sanford in Clementsvale gave us a beautiful lithograph of the Annapolis County Church map, and she told us about having living room “parties” where all of the neighbours would come over to study the map and share their memories of who lived where.

So, this is another idea about how to do the census-matching work. Another fun way to do the census-matching with friends.
